

STEVEN H. GILES 1946

Steven was the baby son of Phyllis Hicken and John Giles. At age three he lost his parents and became the foster son of Chick Hicken and Reed Dahlman and was a great joy to their lives. He was a tall, blue-eyed, blond curly haired good looking guy. Steven was fun loving and always happy and a joy to the lives of many people.

He served his country in the Army (Green Beret) in the Viet Nam War. When he returned home he married Margaret Leatham and they had three children whom he loved very much.

He loved the outdoors and enjoyed fishing, hunting, camping, snowmobiling horses and other animals. He was an All Star Little League baseball player and at the time of his death he was coaching Little League Baseball and playing Church ball.

He was killed in a truck rollover in Heber 27 July 1973. He is missed by many.
